MacMillan Says: Gen. Montgomery Hero to His Men

Something of the personality which makes Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery an inspiration to the soldiers who fight under him is described in the following dispatch, the second of three by a British United Press staff correspondent who knows the general intimately and has spent many months in the desert with the British Eighth Army.—EDITOR.

LONDON, April 27.—Death relented once and struck once to give Gen. Sir Bernard Lee Montgomery to the United Nations.

During the First World War he was wounded twice. On the second occasion military doctors pronounced him dead. I have it on the best authority that his "body" was in a truck bound for the cemetery when an attendant saw his eyelids flicker.

The truck whirled around and the wounded captain was returned post haste to a hospital at Montenero.

A quarter of a century later two Messerschmitt 100 fighter planes swooped out of the sun over the Cairo-Alexandria road and shot down a lumbering Bombay transport plane. It crashed in flames. One of those killed in it was Lt. Gen. Henry S. Gort, one of the great desert commanders, who was returning from the front to take over command of the battered Eighth Army.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill, who had been on the verge of announcing Gort's appointment to the Eighth Army command, knew what to do. For a long time the British premier had had his eye on Montgomery, then a Lieutenant-General in charge of the Southeast Command. Churchill dispatched Montgomery to the desert by air and on August 18, 1942, announced his appointment as leader of the British Eighth Army.

Soldiers Like His Toughness

The moment Montgomery landed at El Alamein word of his arrival like a bush fire spread through the ranks of the disheartened soldiers. They warmed toward him immediately.

Heavy Air Action On Russian Front

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW, April 27.—(AP)—Aviation activity had reached a new fury on the Soviet-German front today as Russians, with increased air power, continued to blast Nazi forward and rear positions and communications.

The most intensive action still was in the Kuban region of the Caucasus.

Observers asserted that the Red air force had struck the German air arm such a sudden and heavy blow in the Kuban that Hitler's whole plan of air support for the German counter-attack has collapsed, at least for the present.

Soviet airmen made raid after raid on German positions and the enemy was reported to have lost hundreds of planes.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA April 27.—(AP)—French troops have reached the outskirts of Pont Du Fahs, strategic crossroads town and German base 31 miles southwest of Tunis, a French communiqué announced tonight.

By WES GALLAGHER
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, April 27.—(AP)—Allied forces have driven to within four miles of the Tunis-Pont Du Fahs road and have destroyed 80 German tanks in the big-scale battle which has raged since Sunday. Allied quarters announced today.

Further north, the British 1st Army infantry cleared 11 miles of the road from Medjez El Bab to Tebourba and reached Tunis railroad station, 23 miles west of Tunis, from the direction reported, and for the first time since last November the Allies were again on the breach to the Tunis plain.

The same reports said the French skirting the Mediterranean had penetrated to within six miles of Lake Achkel, which almost adjoins Lake Bizerte, and had placed British and French troops within 25 miles of both the twin cities of Bizerte and Tunis.

SPEEDY ADVANCE

In the sector between Medjez El Bab and the Mediterranean, Americans continued to advance so rapid that German rear guards were unable to bury their dead and assaulted the two strategic knolls, Green Hill and Bald Hill, the most heavily fortified mountains in the northern sector.

Canadian Soldier Chained 136 Days

WINNIPEG, April 27.—(CP)—Pie, Capt. T. Higgs, 26, of the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada who was taken prisoner at Dieppe, in a letter to his wife, said he had been chained up for 136 days.

In the letter, dated Feb. 21, he said he had received only one letter from her in his 136 days. He advised her not to put any "X" marks for answers on her letters as he believed the Germans think the marks are a code and therefore her letters fail to reach him.

Mrs. Higgs said today she had written four letters and two letters a week for the past year.

She said: "So far have been chained up 136 days. I don't think it will last much longer but I'm sure now and make no reference any more. I'm feeling fine."

Nazis' Vaunted "Atlantic Wall" Is Unfinished

BERNE, Switzerland, April 27.—(AP)—The Germans' latest request for French help to build the "Atlantic Wall" to help against Allied attacks has disclosed that the Nazis' vaunted "Atlantic Wall" is not yet finished, French circles said today.

Foreign diplomatic observers took the latest request from the French government as a sign that the Nazis are still in a desperate position.

No Statement Poles Seeking Intervention in Russ Rupture

By JOHN A. PARRIS
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
LONDON, April 27.—The Polish government in exile was reported today to be considering an appeal to Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden for the first time since the Soviet winter offensive showed Novogorod "exactly in front of his line."

The broadcast, recorded by the Associated Press, said that the Poles are in Russian hands, since the line ran along the west bank of the lake about 100 miles south of Leningrad on the front where Marshal Smolensk scored great gains in the winter campaign.

Further Advance

Near the southern anchor of the front, the Germans said the front "touches the town of Taganrog," 42 miles west of the Sea of Azov. This indicated a further westward advance than the Russians had claimed.

In the Kuban sector, the front was said to be "somewhere near the mouth of the Kuban," 42 miles west of the Sea of Azov. This indicated a further westward advance than the Russians had claimed.

SEES AMBASSADOR

A Polish spokesman said that no statement on the Polish government's attitude toward Russia's new report would be issued today. A scheduled press conference was cancelled. However, a statement by the government was expected tomorrow.

Sikorski was reported reliably to have conferred with Alexander Bogomolov, Russian ambassador to the exiled governments here, to discuss the situation in the Smolensk area.

Responsible sources said Sikorski told Bogomolov that he personally would be in the city.

1,500 Tons Bombs Rain On Nazi City

By WILLIAM B. DICKINSON
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
Copyright, 1942, by British United Press

LONDON, April 27.—A great force of British and Canadian four-engine bombers hammered the river port and steel city of Duisburg last night with upwards of 1,500 tons of bombs in one of the heaviest raids of the war on Germany.

Well-informed sources said the raid was comparable in weight to the 1,000-plane raid of last May 30 on Cologne, when 1,000 tons of bombs also were dropped. Thus, other heavy planes participated in last night's assault, almost all were four-engine giants.

The huge cargoes of bombs—ranging from four-ton super-blockbusters to two-ton incendiaries—that went smoldering, burning, and exploding over Duisburg, nearly 10,000 feet above the city, were dropped by the bombers.

CLAIMED GREATEST EVER

A British broadcast heard by British United Press at New York City, said the heaviest ever made on Germany.

Pounding Duisburg with the R.A.F. and Canadian bombers, the R.A.F.'s overseas headquarters announced. Four Canadian bombers were among the 17 in the raid, which was the first on Germany since last May 30.

Preliminary reports indicate that the bombing was highly concentrated, with several incendiary bombs hitting the city center.

The night assault on Duisburg, the steel city, was the first in the series of attacks on the city.

day evening. Time of the parade and route will be announced later.
Loan officials here were informed by provincial headquarters that the total sales in Alberta during Monday amounted to $2,000,000. The quota for the province has been set at $3,000,000, and the quota for Northern Alberta at $1,500,000. Edmonton's quota is $850,000.

SELL JEWELRY

A Kilman resident, W. E. Birchill and his wife, anxious to "Back the Attack" to the limit of their resources, collected all their jewelry, some of it dating back more than 300 years, and brought it to Edmonton to raise money for investment in the loan.

A watch was sold for $57. Of this $50 was invested in a bond, the $7 being retained to pay expenses back to Kilman. The rest of the jewelry was placed in keeping of members of the Citizens Victory Bureau for disposal, the proceeds to be invested in the Fourth Victory Loan.

Hardly leads all Northern Alberta rural points in quota volume of purchases. During Monday sales amounted to $7,500 were made to equate 27 per cent of the quota set for the town and district. This quota is $28,000.

Second on the list of quota volume sales was Waskanan, with sales amounting to $2,500 of a $4,000 quota. This is 62.5 per cent of the objective. At Vegreville 21 per cent of quota was reached on the first day with sales amounting to $1,400 against a quota of $7,000.

Edmonton and district achieved 20 per cent of the $2,800,000 quota with sales amounting to $560,000, and Jasper 17.6 per cent of a $7,000 quota with sales amounting to $1,230.

A city salesman had an unusual experience during the first day of the sale. He called at a home and asked if they were purchasing Victory bonds. The boy who answered the door told him he had a "mama" and she should see "mama".

SHE ALSO BUYS
She was introduced to the salesman by her son, who explained his mission. The old lady left the room to return in a few moments with her savings bank pass book.

Without comment she handed the book to the salesman. He saw that there was a balance of $208 in the account. He asked how much of it she wanted to subscribe. "All" she answered, the woman said. The salesman wrote out an application for $208 worth of Victory bonds. She left the woman said: "All we want to do is be better."

Indicative of the spirit of the small wage earner and their willingness to invest in this loan is demonstrated by the mother of three children who applied at an Edmonton branch to invest in this loan. She can earn extra money to invest in the loan. She is now working and has signed up to purchase a bond out of her earnings.

Washington, April 26.—(AP)—Bureau of Economic Warfare today announced that it had received information that the German government was planning to launch a major offensive against the United States in the near future.

Funny Business

"And this is my husband—he had a rather blank expression on our wedding day."

$63,295,750 Is First Day Sale In Victory Loan

The loan, including Bell Telephone Company of Canada, $3,000,000; Royal Trust Co., Montreal, $1,000,000; Credit Foncier Franco-Canadien, $100,000; Canadian Kodak Company Ltd., Mount Dennis, $1,200,000; Woodward Stores Ltd., Vancouver, $750,000; Robin Hood Financiers Ltd., Montreal and Moose Jaw, $800,000.

Towns and villages throughout the country were reporting widespread support for the Fourth Victory Loan, many of them having already exceeded their quotas at the end of the first day of the drive.

In the province of Quebec several communities were already well ahead of their quotas. On the first day of canvass, the unit at Pluher Creek, Alta., sold 250 individual Victory bonds totaling $105,000 against a quota of $100,000.

$15,000 AT WHITEHORSE
Whitehorse, in far-off Yukon Territory, reported subscriptions of $15,000 or 10 per cent of the $150,000 objective. Mission City, a town in the Fraser Valley, reports that all applications are running 50 per cent more than those of the Third Victory loan.

Workers in factories, stores and offices were reported taking good advantage of the payroll savings plan of bond purchases.

Applications by members of the three branches of the armed services are being received in increasing numbers, both individually and in blocks.

"Typical of the way all three are attacking the financial front was the record of 900 officers and men at the Canadian army basic training centre at Cornwall in pledging more than $30,000 in less than 40 minutes."

MANY ON INSTALLMENTS
A feature of service subscriptions has been the large number taken up by the cashless installment basis.

Naval services were prompt in settling outstanding accounts, among them the work of the Pacific service in securing more than $400,000 in the first day.

A "high ceiling" typified active activity, with Camp Borden buying up $200,000 or 140 per cent of its quota. Ottawa City, elementary Flying Training School, on the first day subscribed five times its quota. At No. 3 Service Flying Training School, Calgary, the $50,000 objective was passed by $14,000.

In addition to the bigger purchases made public today, the following large subscriptions were announced overnight: United Grain Growers Ltd. and subsidiary companies, $600,000; Western Sales Products Corporation, $125,000; St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Co., Winnipeg, $100,000.

Allied headquarters communicate characterized as of "unabated ferocity." They were participated in by Allied air forces which flew more than 1,000 sorties in an offensive which the announcement said was of "increasing intensity."

KEY TO GREAT FIGHT
The tank battle here, which appeared to be the key to the great fight, raged all along the front, had cut the Germans 20 tanks in the last 24 hours.

In the wild and deadly close tank battle, the British had reached one point four miles from the supply road running northeast of Pont du Fais, and a second column had battered its way to within six miles of the artery.

U.S. Has Not Any Surplus Of Munitions

NEW YORK, April 27.—(CP)—The United States army, instead of accumulating a surplus of munitions, is so far from its needs that it will not be able to furnish all troops with basic equipment until late next year.

Li-Gen, Breton 5, Somerville, commanding general of the army service forces, said today.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the United States Congress, he asserted categorically "there have been no huge accumulations of stores which could not be moved overseas."

"In point of fact," he added, "we are still not free from difficulties in providing essential cargo for the shipping which is available to us."

AXIS PROPAGANDA
Widespread discussion of recent reductions in the production program for the ground forces. Somerville said, has failed to take into account that the action concerned future schedules, not current production, which is still increasing at a rate of about $100,000,000 a month.

Moreover, this rate of increase must be maintained through most of 1943 if we are to reach our goal," the General added.

Branding reports of a munitions surplus and rumors that the automobile industry was shifting from military to civilian production as Axis-inspired propaganda designed to slow up the war effort, Somerville declared that "victory is not just around the corner."

Miners Support Vote to Continue Drumheller Strike

DRUMHELLER, April 27.—(CP)—The majority decision to continue the strike of 2015 coal miners in the Drumheller Valley received solid support at separate meetings of the 14 U.M.W.A. locals in this district yesterday, the strike committee announced.

John Stokaki, vice-president of District No. 18, U.M.W.A., Calgary, returned to Drumheller yesterday along with Tom McCloy, organizer, and conferred with strike leaders in a further attempt to reach some agreement to re-open the mines service forces, said today.

MacMillan Says: General Montgomery Is Hero to His Soldiers of Tough British 8th Army

ly because, from the start, he showed himself to be a man who thought in terms of the offensive. They liked his toughness.

Since then Montgomery has won the world's plaudits and the undying loyalty of his men. It is the latter he cherishes. He earned it by proving himself an iron man—cool under the most intense shellfire as when on rare occasions, he relaxes in his desert caravan behind the lines.

The soldiers call him "Monty of El Alamein." His tours the battle line in tank with the name "Monty" on its nose. He travels longer distances in the desert in an open staff car, with two military police as outriders and protected by armored cars.

Has Faced Death Many Times

Hereafter, when he travels by air, Montgomery may use a Flying Fortress with an American crew. The four-engined bomber was given him recently by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

His presence in the forefront of battle is no new thing to Montgomery. He has faced death many times, both in war and peace. During the First World War he was wounded six times in dispatches. He also won the Croix de Guerre. In the years of peace between wars, Montgomery saw fighting in the Trans-Jordan, where he learned much of his desert lore.

As a temporary Lieutenant-Colonel he went to Germany with the Rhineclan army of occupation and there studied German military methods. He returned to England to become an instructor and there worked out a system of command which is typical—one in which the commander is able to know exactly what is happening all along the line. It was a system which proved itself against Field Marshal Erwin Rommel years later.

Has Reputation For Slogans

The commands he held in England gave Montgomery a reputation for slogans. The walls of his quarters were kept covered with such mottoes as: "Are you 100 per cent fit?" "Are you 100 per cent up to your job?" "Are you 100 per cent full of binges?"

"Binge" is Montgomery's favorite word, and quite personal. It probably means "fighting fitness" or, for a Canadian equivalent, "zip." It certainly doesn't mean "bender." Montgomery is a teetotaler, both as to tobacco and liquor. Neither does he swear.

His passion for fitness has put many of his staff officers on their pikes. He prefers to test their ability to take it before battle than the theory that it might be costly. He discovered weakness in the midst of fighting. So Montgomery's motto is to be the most rigorous physical training. It was new to officers of the Eighth Army but old stuff to those who served under him in England.

When Montgomery was commanding the invasion coast in the south of England, reporters who were likely to see a line of middle-aged headquarters officers struggling at a dog trot across the hills.

MUST EXERCISE

Montgomery had ordered his men to do 10 miles a week, although some did not exercise since they felt Sandhurst. Sometimes Monty led them. Reporters who asked whether he was afraid of the desert officers might drop dead on such a stiff jaunt received a characteristic reply:

"If the Germans invade they'll have far more strenuous duties. I'd rather they dropped dead on me now than in the midst of an invasion."

It's the same way in the desert. In the early morning I often saw a line of figures in battle dress or flannel and shirt running along the sandy shores of the Mediterranean. It was Montgomery, practicing what he preaches. He proved to his officers and men quickly that he was no maverick general.

DRESSES FOR ACTION

He dresses for action. In the field with his troops Monty wears shorts and shirt, with a revolver strapped to his waist. His favorite headgear is not the general's cap, with gold braid and crimson band, but an Australian slouch hat covered with the insignia of units he has commanded.

The only touch of luxury Montgomery permits himself in the desert where it is not unusual to go for months without a bath, is frequent bathing when circumstances permit.

One of the most common sights for soldiers on their way to and from the battlefield is the vision of a sandy-haired slightly bald head sticking out of an old tin bathtub. The tub is one of Montgomery's prize trophies. It was captured from an Italian staff officer.

Bathing is the closest Montgomery comes to playing the Sybarite. His personal habits are utterly ascetic.

BELIEVES IN MORALE
He is proud of his men and believes thoroughly in the importance of their morale. Aside from physical fitness, he demands of his officers that they be the best from other military standpoints. His frankness and brusquely direct manner of speech can be cutting. An officer detailed to join his staff went directly to headquarters where Montgomery received him with the sharp greeting: "You are a good officer but you are not good enough for me." The officer returned immediately to his previous post.

His officers may drink moderately, but only if it does not interfere with their duties. Some times, after staff talks, he serves hipbials, containing himself with

Isley Declares Canadians Must Save For Future

CALGARY, April 27.—(CP)—

Every Canadian must be willing to take part in the Victory Loan, and to save for the future, Hon. J. L. Isley, minister of finance, said at a Victory Loan rally here last night.

The man who says he will not come to the financial assistance of his country in its hour of dire need, just because he does not like something the government of his country feels it has to do, is adopting an untenable position," he said. "A position which he probably will not persist in holding. The heart of Canada is sound. The overwhelming majority place the war effort before all else."

QUOTES MONTGOMERY

He repeated the words Gen. Montgomery spoke in his British 8th Army: "I told you of each one of us did his duty and pulled his full weight then nothing could stop us. And nothing has stopped us."

Mr. Isley declared: "This is the spirit in which all Canadians should go forward in this Victory Loan campaign. Every victory loan takes us further along the road. The first Victory Loan, the second, the third, were all milestones on our forward march. The fourth must not be the last Victory Loan but one of these a loan will come which will carry us into the period of complete and final victory."

Immediately after his address, Mr. Isley left for Regina on a C.P.R. train which had been held nearly an hour and a half, because the minister's plane had been grounded.

Ministers of the provincial loan committee, P. G. Osborne, stated he was placing full reliance on the people of Alberta to meet their quota of $23,000,000.

Just before his address, Mr.

Isley received a promissory note from Mr. Osborne, endorsed by 128 of the 130 members of the C.P.R. before May 15, 1945, who the citizens of Alberta promise to loan the Dominion of Canada $23,000,000. Value received—Freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from war and freedom from fear.

In his address, the minister noted some of the most important reasons for the holding of a Victory Loan—the prevention of inflation, and preparation for the post-war period.

He said: "We are not able to replace now what we are wearing, nor can we equip the new homes that are being set up as we would want to equip them. If these goods were available, many of us would be buying them and it would be prudent and sensible to do so, but now that they are not available we must be aware of the temptation to squander our money."

Mr. Isley presented two Victory Loan pennants when he arrived at No. 3 S.F.T.S. R.C.A.F. yesterday.

The small white flags bearing the loan crest were awarded because of the effort of the three drivers, periscope, at 15 S.F.T.S. and No. 15 S.F.T.S., Clarendon, had exchanged their loan pennants.

No. 3 was the first group of any kind in Canada to attain its objective, and No. 15 followed in a few days later. Receiving the pennants were William C. R. D. Byers, A.P.C. commanding officer No. 3, and Group Captain W. E. Kennedy, commanding officer No. 15 S.F.T.S.

'Comrade' Adopted By C.C.F. in B.C.

VANCOUVER, April 27.—(CP)—

British Columbia members of the Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation (C.C.F.) have adopted the term "comrade" in addressing other members at meetings or conventions but use of the word is not mandatory.

A resolution which would have banned use of "comrade" was defeated at the annual convention of British Columbia C.C.F. clubs. The motion sponsored by the Rossland club argued use of the term was detrimental to the party cause and did not help the C.C.F.

Opponents of the resolution contended members did not have to use the word in addressing other delegates, as because some did not prefer the term was no reason others should be prohibited from using the word.

Some members of the C.C.F. have been using "comrade" for years at meetings and conventions in British Columbia, for instance addressing the chairman as "comrade chairman."

Survivors Land

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(AP)—

Survivors of a medium-sized United States merchant vessel, torpedoed and sunk by an enemy submarine in the north Atlantic in the middle of March, have been landed in New York City, the navy department reported yesterday.

World Co-Operation Required After War

WINNIPEG, April 27.—(CP)—

Leonard Marsh of Montreal told the Winnipeg Canadian Club yesterday that post-war reconstruction would depend on international co-operation.

"The difficulties we face are appalling, but so is the war," said Dr. Marsh, research adviser of the federal committee on reconstruction and author of the Marsh plan for social security.

He said Canada would require a combination of private and public enterprise with intelligent statecraft to solve post-war problems.

The major problem would be to provide full employment.

"There is plenty of work for everyone, if we are willing to put in the groundwork which will be required before full employment is achieved."

Industry would have to be stabilized and agriculture put on a solid basis.

'BURP' is not a Polite Word!

"Burs" you ever been embarrassed by "burping" in presence of others? You should, but it's not more trouble with digestive organs, nor stomachs, but burs, don't make such unpleasant trouble as often caused by a system clogged with poisonous food waste.

It's amazing how many you can imagine one of indignation a most common treatment which has helped thousands and each small laxative pill go 10 concentrated vegetable extracts which work even so gently on liver bile, stomach, upper and lower bowels.

Use the very valuable action of Bile Beans cause the system once healthy regularly cleans itself—no harmful drug-like laxatives. Be convinced get Bile Beans as a very druggist. See, Made in England. Over 1 million bottles sold, proof of emotional popularity.

Allies May Contemplate Invasion Of Norway and Finland's Belief

THE GREMLINS

By HARRISON SALISBURY

Exclusive to the Edmonton Bulletin from the London Press.

LONDON, April 27.—Suggestations made by the London press that the Allies may contemplate an invasion of Norway and Finland and that Sweden will be drawn into the war may be wide of the mark but no single Allied move would be likely to carry the war closer to the heart of Germany.

The suggestion that the Allies might carry out in reverse the Nazi tactics which attacked the war in the west two years ago is based primarily on the desirability of chopping off sea and air bases in Northern Norway and Finland from the Murmansk coast.

The possibility that the Germans actually may fear such a move is raised by reports that the German high sea fleet now is concentrated at Narvik which would be an obvious target for any effort to cut off their sea routes.

The naval concentration also could be related to the Finnish Navy which the Nazis have precipitated demands for an air war effort on the part of Finland.

It likewise could tie in with the German plans between Sweden and Finland to march into Sweden and to attempt to seal off the Finnish line across Scandinavia.

The benefits of a successful Allied invasion of Scandinavia would be many. If the Allies could take over the bomber bases in Sweden, the bomber bases would be within striking distance of the German coast.

From the southern tip of Norway the Allied distance to Hamburg is 100 miles, to Berlin 150 miles, to Moscow 1,000 miles, to Leningrad 1,200 miles, to St. Petersburg 1,300 miles, to the Arctic Ocean NEW YORK, April 27.—Reflections of the new baseball season: Despite the early general alarm over poor attendance at major league opening-day games, attendance during the past week-end should prove particularly encouraging to the boys in the ticket-booths.

CANADIAN SPORTSHOTS

By Charles Edwards

TORONTO, April 27.—(CP)—The hockey hall of fame sweepstakes is entering the exciting stage. The field seems to be narrowed down now to Kingston, Ont., and Halifax. Committees in both cities are working overtime gathering data to establish their claim as potential sites of the proposed memorial.

The payoff is expected at the National Hockey League meeting May 8 in Montreal.

The rest of Canada may be uninterested about the "museum mania" but there is plenty of interest in the two cities most concerned. Newspapers give the hall of fame sweepstakes the billing. The Kingston Whig-Standard's sports writer, Wm. J. Walsh, visited Cooperstown, N.Y., and wrote a series of articles on baseball's hall of fame located there.

Walsh writes: "A typical American community of 1,500 Cooperstown has commercialized on the claim that Abner Doubleday invented baseball and played the first game on a cow pasture in the little village. The baseball museum and stadium at Cooperstown is a producing gold mine for publicity and revenue for merchants and residents of the village."

He reveals Cooperstown raised about $75,000 by loan to build the baseball museum. The 100,000 stadium now is paid for and the museum was opened in 1938 and in the first year more than 30,000 signed its guest book.

"Hockey could have as many varied souvenirs of the past as there are baseball relics at Cooperstown. There is an old puck and stick at Queens's similar to the little baseball in the first game which is supposed to have been used in Doubleday's first game."

Babe Ruth's old uniform would not be any more prized than Horie Morehead's. It is a lettered red sweater with the Canadian crest.

NEW YORK, April 27.—(AP)—Henry Eugene Gene McCann, 61, Yankees' scout, died here Monday of a heart attack.

MINOR HOCKEY GRANTS

The convention endorsed the recommendation of the finance committee that the association's grants to minor hockey be increased by $1,500, with Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan receiving an additional $500 to their usual $1,000 grants.

The association allocated $1,000 each to the Maritime, Quebec, Ontario and District, Ontario Hockey Association, Thunder Bay and British Columbia branches.

Pickard, chairman of the committee for minor hockey, appointed Norman Dyer, Montreal, and Doug Grimston, New Westminster, B.C., as committee members.

Jack Abbott, North Battleford, Sask., spoke in support of improved grants for athletic teams traveling in Canada, particularly in western Canada.

In reply, Sargent said that in previous attempts to obtain better rates for the association had not got to first base.

Mr. Sargent expressed the conviction that in future play-offs contracts with all risks should be made.

It was pointed out that all reinstated professional players were the property of the professional clubs and that no amateur club had any right to a player.

C.A.H.A. Concludes Annual Session Held at Port Arthur

PORT ARTHUR, April 27.—(CP)—Montreal was selected as the venue for the next annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association and the officers of the 1942-43 season were re-elected as the two-day annual convention wound up its business last night.

Frank Sargent, Port Arthur, will continue as president, with Hanson Dowell, Middleton, N.S., as first vice-president, and W. Pickard, Regina, as second vice-president. Secretary F. H. Marples, Toronto, and registrar-treasurer W. A. Hewitt, Toronto, were re-elected.

A report on the International Ice Hockey Association by Dr. W. J. Hardy of Edmonton and an appeal for more consideration for western playing fields were the highlights of the closing session.

The I.I.H.A. was a "holding organization," prepared for post war activities, said Dr. Hardy. The association hoped, he said, to take over for Canada control of the world of hockey.

GAME GUARANTEES

Reporting on the activities of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States, president Tom Lockhart of New York said that his organization had a reasonably good season but was looking mainly to the future. He forecast a "big development of hockey in the United States after the war."

Norman Couch, Saskatchewan representative, appealed for "more consideration for western artificial ice rinks" and said that "high guarantees asked by the C.A.H.A. were not fair to western hockey."

As a follow up to Mr. Couch's appeal, Dr. Hardy said that guarantees actually were not necessary when a home club was participating, but that they were necessary in ice rinks. He forecast a "big development of hockey in the United States after the war."

Police Chief Recommends Deadline Hour of 10 p.m. For Remainder of Summer

Miss Foley, City Sailor Pledge Vows

Colorful spring flowers and banks of ferns formed the background for the marriage Monday evening at Newwood United church, of Dorothy Irene Foley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foley of Edmonton, to Charles Cecil McQuade, R.C.N.V.R., young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McQuade of Edmonton. The bridegroom is home on leave after serving for a year at the west coast. The Rev. D. C. Ramsey, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tea-length gown of white triple sheer, fashioned with embroidered bodice, bishop sleeves, and a full gathered skirt. Her veil of heavy embroidered silk net was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms from her mother's wedding veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses tied with streamers of white satin.

Miss Jean Ward was maid-of-honor and Miss Marion Allen, cousin of the bride and Miss Greta McQuade, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Edith Wakinghouse was flower girl.

Miss Allen and Miss McQuade wore gowns cut on similar lines to the maid of honor. The former wore a powder blue chiffon gown with matching chapel veil and elbow length gloves and the latter wore a pink tulle gown with pink veil and gloves. They carried bouquets of white carnations tied with ribbons to match their ensembles.

Best man was James McQuade, Jr., brother of the bridegroom. Ushers, chosen to pass marked with small clusters of daffodils tied with white ribbons, were Donald Kilgus and Oliver Trov.

During the signing of the register, Miss Foley played a waltz, "Adoration," accompanied by Mr. Banner at the piano.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was held in Eastwood hall. Mrs. Foley and Mrs. McQuade received with the bride party. Official Urges Stook Sweeps To Aid Farmers

Stook sweeps are recommended by the provincial department of agriculture to help farmers in the present manure crisis, and the department announced Tuesday short courses are being arranged at the Old School of Agriculture, to encourage the building of the stooks.

As one stook sweep will take the place of four or five men on the place, the department is urging the use of stook sweeps, and a long way towards solving the shortage of labor anticipated during the harvesting operations.

It was stated that in areas in central Alberta, a number of sweeps were built last year, and through the winter, and are now operating successfully, threshing the crop and stooking the straw. Many more machines, though, will be needed if they are used during the 1943 harvest season to make appreciable impression on the problem of harvest labor.

BUILT LAST YEAR
Some sweeps were built last year by farmers, at considerable expense, and these have proved to be failures, the announcement says. This is not necessary if certain basic principles of construction are observed, and farmers contemplating building one are urged to first investigate models that have proved their worth in actual operation.

The training offered by the department is available to county blacksmiths, mechanics, and machine-shop operators. Owing to the present rush of threshing, and ensuing calls for general repair work, only a number of blacksmiths and mechanics have applied for the course, it is reported.

As soon as sufficient applications have been received, the first group will be admitted and the course will be commenced. Applications should be sent to the Extension Branch, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

Council Seeks Further Report Police Clothes

militant that in hearing, and through the city commissioners had broken the terms of the zoning by-law governing the district.

She said that the noise of the huge mechanical machines being parked in the area caused great inconvenience to the residents. She pointed out also that residents who had cultivated their land annually for the past 12 years had now been evicted from their gardens. She submitted that there was plenty of vacant land in the district that could have been rented without inconvenience to anybody.

The commissioners indicated that the parking of trucks in this district was a contravention of the zoning by-law, and admitted the receipt of several complaints. They said that the United States authorities had agreed to gravel the avenue at compensation, and that this had been done at no cost to the residents.

MAY PROHIBIT USE

Ald. J. M. Douglas said the graveling had to be done to make the road passable, and added that in his opinion the zoning appeal board might prohibit the use of this property as a parking area, as it was an infringement of the by-law. He said that it was the custom of the board to uphold protests from residents against zone changes.

Ald. T. J. Mitchell asked the commissioners for information regarding the leasing of this property, and also if any consideration had been given to the zoning regulations when the lease was entered into. He was of the opinion that this case and any other in which zoning was affected, should be referred to the city council.

He said that the commissioners, or some member of the land department, permit leasing of land for use contrary to the zoning by-law and the members of the aldermanic board have to face the criticism arising from that action. Ald. Sidney Brown said that there were not normal times, and people must be prevented from dealing with inconveniences in the interests of the nation's war effort.

HOUSING REQUEST

Application from A. M. Herd for permission to use a garage building for dwelling purposes was referred to the city commissioners for a full report as to the power of city council to permit such conversion, and also for a report on the effect of the general order of the War Time Prices and Trade Board affecting the right of home owners to rent to the extent of their accommodation.

Ald. Ogilvie asked for a report on the power of council or the zoning appeal board to give permission for the use of this type of accommodation for a stated period during the present housing emergency.

C.P. Air Lines Officials Here In Conference

With G. W. G. McConachie, general manager of C.P. Air Lines Western Lines, serving as chairman, a conference of all district superintendents of C.P. Air Lines Western Lines is being held Tuesday and Wednesday in the company offices at the airport administration building.

Problems arising from ever-increasing traffic, resulting from war projects in the north, were the chief matters under discussion. Plans are also being laid for the summer season of operations, which will be beyond question the heaviest in the history of the northern Alberta branch of the line.

The following are attending: W. E. Catton, superintendent of the central district, with headquarters at Winnipeg; L. S. Wagner, superintendent of the Whitehorse district; E. R. K. "Tom" Field, superintendent of the British Columbia district; W. E. Gilbert, superintendent of the Mackenzie district; B. W. Ryan, former superintendent of the Saskatchewan district, who has been on leave for government war work.

Low Outlines Difficulties For Teachers

must also be capable of teaching and ready to instill into hearts of our class members and our communities, the necessity of each one living to promote the well-being of the whole. This is our challenge.

We must also understand that what a nation is, is only what its people are, in a democracy. If the individuals serve God, the nation could be called Christian, and if the individuals were pagan, then the nation could be called pagan."

CLOSELY ALLIED

Discussing the question of morale, he was closely allied to it, and conductive of it, was a proper home life. Family harmony is more important in maintaining sane attitudes in these times of stress, than almost any other factor.

"What can we do about the family, in order to meet the crisis of today?"
In the first place, as teachers, we can remember that courage is contagious, and we can teach our children that the home should be the fountain of hope, and faith, and the courage necessary to see them through to a successful conclusion.

Canada's ability to fight the war, and its success on the battlefield, is dependent on the morale of her people. Morale is a matter of the individual spirit, and the best way to strengthen that spirit is to live in accordance with Christian teachings, and also to help others to do the same.

"Being fair in dealing, kindness, reality and universal brotherhood are factors in strengthening of spirit."

"Living these principles is the best way of teaching them."

MORE FAITH

"Our young people, in school, should be taught more of the principles of faith. Morale depends on faith. It is in the young folk to understand the reason and justification of things happening in the world today."

The war should not do away with play, said Mr. May. "In the time of stress, recreation is ever more necessary than it is at any other time. Therefore, the home should resume some of its former prominence as a place of recreation."

"It is your job to find new kinds of recreation and we can help make the home contribute much along this line."

Greetings of the city were extended to the association by Mayor John W. Fry. The teaching profession has a great responsibility, he said, and would measure up to it.

Tag Days Yield

$17,372.84 in '42

A total of $17,372.84 was collected in Tag Days through 1942, according to a statement issued Tuesday by the City Commissioners office. One organization has yet to report on the amount collected.

Applications have been received by the city commissioners for permission to hold tag days from the Northern Alberta Branch of the Navy League of Canada in aid of the Merchant Navy, and from the Alberta Automobile Association.

Ten women's auxiliaries to regiments overseas have asked for a minimum of five tag days to obtain funds for sending Christmas parcels to Edmontonians serving in Britain and other parts of the battle front.

The City Commissioners will shortly allow dates for the 1943 tag days.

Timber, Tar Sand Sheer Dam

Carried Away by River Ice

A sheer dam of timber and tar sand, constructed by army engineers on the Athabasca River near Fort McMurray to keep ice from backing into the waters of the Stave, was carried out by the terrific pressure of ice during the break-up of the Athabasca river recently.

This was learned here Tuesday on the return to Edmonton of air lines officials from the north. The dam is said to have cost about $40,000 and was constructed during the winter months.

When the Edmonton officials left Tuesday the ice jam in the Stave would delay summer flying operations with pontoon-equipped planes for some time. They said there was little could be done beyond waiting for the ice jam to melt. As there is little current in the Stave, dynamite or aerial bombing at this point would be of no practical value.

No U.S. army equipment or supplies were lost during the break-up of the Athabasca although the water rose 10 feet and a serious flood was feared at one time. A U.S. Army Air Force plane crashed into the ice jam below Fort McMurray, ice has since moved out of the Clearwater River.

City Has Issued

All Bicycle Tags

Supply of bicycle tags at the city license department were sold out Tuesday and officials are now improving tags to meet the demand for licenses.

Last year an order for 12,000 tags was given to a Hamilton, Ont. firm, but only 5,800 of the order were shipped here. Letters to the firm have not resulted in further supply being forthcoming, and officials of the department do not know when they can expect a further supply.

Collect $58,800

TORONTO, April 27.—(CP)—R.C.A.F. officials last night reported the Technical Training School at St. Thomas, Ont., had collected $58,800 on the first day of the Victory Loan drive.

"War has at all times called for the fortitude of women... We, no less than men, have real and vital work to do."

On Armistice Day, 1939, Queen Elizabeth broadcast these words to a world newly plunged into war.

It was a call to women to put all their courage of mind and heart, all their strength and endurance, at the service of their country in its hour of need. Women of Canada heard . . . and answered.

Every Canadian woman is in a very real sense a warrior working for victory. Whether she serves in the armed forces, in the front lines of industrial production, or taking care of home and family . . . her efforts bring closer the day of victory.

Once again Canadian women are making sure that every dollar is a fighting dollar. By rigorous self-denial now . . . in order to supply the overwhelming numbers of tanks and guns, ships and planes that will mean the margin of victory for our fighting forces . . . all of us can help to get the job done that much quicker. And when victory is won, Victory Bond savings will enable you to enjoy all the things which are not now available.

This time buy two ways. First, with cash on hand. Second, on the 6-month installment plan, either through your bank or employer. In this way you will be doing YOUR share in helping to put Canada's FOURTH VICTORY LOAN, with an objective of One-Billion-One, over the top!

HOW TO BUY

Give your order to the Victory Loan salesman who calls on you. Or place it in the hands of any branch of any bank, or give it to any mutual company.
